

Renaissance Flags by Kevin Dallimore

USING THE PRINTED FLAGS

The flags have been drawn in the size I use. I know they are somewhat over-large but I like them like that. It also makes them easier to copy and cut out. If you like smaller flags reduce them in the copying process.

- * Once you have copied them cut them out slightly oversized, leaving some white surround.
- * Fix them around a suitable pole with white PVA glue.
- * Allow this to soak well into the flag then press the two sides together around the pole.
- * Leave to cure for a while; keeping it pressed flat under an old book.
- * Bend the flag, whilst it's still flexible to make folds as if it's blowing in the wind.
- * Once the flag is hard trim it with a sharp pair of scissors so that none of the surrounding white paper shows.
- * You can now varnish it for extra strength or even add some painted on highlights.
- * For extra strength and bendability you can make a sort of sandwich with a thin bit of aluminium foil in between the two "sides" of the flag before you stick it together.
